STATE TROOPERS SHOOT AND TAKE WENKSVILLE MAN

Carey Black, of Wenksville, Captured by Two State Troopers. Charged with Causing Forest Fires, being Implicated in Robberies and Shooting a man.

Charged with being implicated in recent forest fires, with having taken part in the robbery at Pine Grove Furnace several months ago and with having shot a negro at Brunsdown, Carey Black, a well known resident of Wenksville, was arrested in the mountains back of that place Monday afternoon by Officers Booth and Smith of the State Constabulary after the latter had shot Black in the legs. Black has been wanted for some time for the various crimes with which he is charged. No attempt at capturing him was made by constables and the matter was placed in the hands of the State Police. Officers Booth and Smith were put on the case and for several days were hunting for their man in the mountains back of Wenksville. Monday afternoon they came upon Black hunting squirrels.

Booth accosted him and demanded his surrender but quick as a flash Black had him covered with a large Colt's revolver. In the meantime Smith had approached steadily from the rear and, finding Booth powerless, fired at Black, the shot entering both legs. Black sank to the ground and the officers then had no trouble in overpowering him.

The man was taken to Bendersville by the State Constables who saw that his wounds were attended to, Dr. Stover being the attending physician. About eight o'clock in the evening he was taken to Carlisle where he was put in the Cumberland county jail. He will likely be tried in the courts of that county as most of his depredations are alleged to have been committed there.

Just what evidence is held against Black has not been made known. The forest fires which devastated valuable timberland along South Mountain several months ago and before that, roused the people of that vicinity and every possible effort was put forth to find out who had started the disastrous conflagration which destroyed so much valuable timberland. Several of these fires occurred near Pine Grove Furnace where the robbery occurred and it is generally believed that the parties implicated in the one also took part in the other.

The shooting affair occurred at Brunsdown, Cumberland County, some distance across the Adams County line. The negro whom Balck shot and who later recovered was said to have taken a keg of beer and it was over this that the altercation took place.

Black is a man about 35 years of age, is married and has one daughter.

BURGLARIES INCREASING

Further attempts at burglarizing the homes of Gettysburg people are being reported daily. In many instances the entering of town homes has not been made known until a week or more afterward and it is now known that a regular systematic campaign has been carried on for the past few weeks. The arrest of William Williams on Monday morning, it is believed, will cause this to stop.

It now develops that about an hour after the Strang home was entered Sunday morning some one was found in the house of George Cook nearby. His daughter heard a noise down stairs and called her father. The would-be thief evidently thought the time had come to beat a hasty retreat and he jumped through a window. Mrs. Tonsil, who lives near the Cook home happened to be looking out the window at the time and saw him jump out. She called to him and the man ran hastily down the alley. Though it was dark Mrs. Tonsil could see his outline plainly and it coincides precisely with Williams' description.

Between three and four o'clock on Monday morning Councilman Charles Beck, of West Middle street, heard some one in the rear of his house and got up to get his revolver and investigate. He evidently made some noise for the man who had crawled up over a grape arbor to gain entrance to the second floor of the house jumped down over the arbor into the yard, ran from there to the yard of Otis Bangham and then came out on Middle street.

The theory has been advanced that Williams may have been implicated in the two barn fires. The matter was put up to him but he of course denied the accusation and said that he was not even in town when the first fire occurred.

Early this morning some one threw a stone through the show window of the Hummer Cigar Store on Carlisle street and took from it several packs of tobacco and some pipes. The stone was evidently thrown from a distance for it went through both outer and inner windows and was found on the floor in the middle of the room this morning. Several stones were found outside showing that a number of attempts to break the window took place. It is believed the thief broke the window some time before taking the goods and threw the stones from a distance to avoid detection.

C. W. BLOCHER TAKES LIFE BY HANGING

Clarence W. Blocher, Well Known Resident of Littlestown, Commits Suicide by Suspending Himself from Rafter in Hog Pen. Found by Wife.

Clarence W. Blocher, of Littlestown, well known all over Adams County, killed himself shortly before noon this morning by hanging in the hog pen at his home. He was found by his wife hanging from a rafter before life was extinct but he died within a few moments.

Mr. Blocher had not been in good health for some time and was subject to fits of melancholy. Last Summer he was in an institution for the trouble and lately had been suffering from the affection. This morning his wife missed him and going down into the yard saw his body suspended from a rafter in the hog pen. She screamed for help and the body was quickly cut down. The unfortunate man was gasping for breath and it was hoped that his life could yet be saved. Efforts proved fruitless, however, and death resulted from strangulation. It is thought that the deed had not been committed more than ten minutes before Mrs. Blocher found her husband.

Mr. Blocher was a son of the late Judge Thaddeus Blocher. He and his brother, Charles, have been in partnership in the carriage business since the estate of their father, the veteran carriage manufacturer of that section, was settled.

He was married about twenty five years ago to a daughter of Andrew Long who survives him with the following children, Ira, of Harrisburg; Thaddeus, of York; Roy, and Ellen at home. He was aged about 50 years and was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Littlestown. Mr. Blocher was a man of quiet demeanor and had many friends all over the county.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

OLDEST CIGAR FACTORY CHANGES

Probably the last of the pioneer cigar manufactories of Hanover has changed hands. Jesse Frysinger, who for a period of about 40 years, operated a factory for the manufacture of cigars has disposed of his interests to William E. Baugher and George M. Kohler, both old employees of the factory.

Mr. Frysinger, who is one of Hanover's best known citizens, began cigar manufacturing under the most modest circumstances possible. For some time he was the only employee on the pay roll, acting as foreman, benchhand, packer, stamper, salesman and proprietor. From a "one man shop" a business of large proportions developed under the skillful management and business tact of Mr. Frysinger, the manufactory usually employing from 40 to 50 hands.

TO INVITE ALL THE GOVERNORS

Governor of Every State in the Union to be Invited to be Present at Celebration of Fiftieth Anniversary to be Held Here.

The commission provided by the last legislature to arrange for a fitting celebration of the semi-centennial of the Battle of Gettysburg, which falls in 1913, held a meeting in Governor Stuart's office in the capitol at Harrisburg, Monday afternoon. The commissioners spent some time discussing the scope of the resolution of May 13, which authorizes them to make plans and arrange for a celebration, to invite the Congress of the United States and the legislatures of the various states of the Union to participate and to make a report to the legislature of 1911.

The general idea appeared to be to hold the celebration on the dates of the battle and to have noted speakers to address the people, for a military demonstration and for the presence of the governors of all the states. The President of the United States will also be invited and Pennsylvania officialdom will be largely represented.

The commission was created through the efforts of a committee of Gettysburg citizens, who called upon Governor Stuart and asked him to bring the matter to the attention of the legislature. The Governor did so and a resolution appropriating $50,000 was adopted and signed.

The members of the commission are: General Louis Wagner and Col. R. Dale Benson, Philadelphia; Colonel Lewis T. Brown and Irvin K. Campbell, Pittsburgh; Major Alexander McDowell, Sharon; Col. R. Bruce Rickets, Wilkes Barre; ex-Senator William Penn Lloyd, Mechanicsburg; Rev. John Richards Boyle, Reading; W. D. Dixon, St. Thomas.

General Wagner was elected chairman some time ago and Dr. Boyle is secretary.

GOOD SHOW

"The Buglar" in Walter's Theatre last Monday evening pleased a very appreciative audience. The play itself is a strong one and was given by a good cast. It was clean and well acted throughout and all who went were well pleased with this as they have been with the other offerings at the theatre. Little seven year old Leonie Flagrath as "Editha" was most remarkable. She was perfectly natural and her acting was decidedly the best of any child ever seen in Gettysburg.

DEPUTY COLLECTOR INVOLVED

Says Invoices Giving False Weights of Consignments Were Verified by Customs Officials and the Money Divided Between the Shipper, the Government Weigher and His Firm.

New York, Oct. 26.—James F. Vall, deputy collector of the port of New York, was accused of complicity in the custom house frauds by the testimony of Phillip Musica, who, with his father, Antonio Musica, is on trial before Judge Holt in the United States circuit court on the charge of bribery and defrauding the government out of customs duties during 1906 and 1907 on Italian cheese importations.

The defense opened its case and Phillip Musica was the first witness. He made no attempt to deny that he had an understanding with customs employees whereby consular invoices giving false weights on cheese consignments from Italy were verified at this port, and that the money saved, representing the difference in pounds between the true weight and the false invoice weight, was divided between weigher and the Musica firm. The witness was plainly anxious, however, to impress upon the court and jury that his father knew nothing of these transactions, and that in fact the elder Musica had resigned from active participation in the business before they began.

Father Ignorant of Bribery.

"I didn't dare tell my father about it," he said, "because I knew he would not stand for it."

Young Musica said that his attention was first called to the possibilities of the underweighing and false consular invoice scheme by James Hyland, a customs inspector, who has been missing for several weeks. Hyland, he said, explained to him how easy it was to have an understanding with the Musicas' foreign shipper whereby the latter would have his consular invoices made out, giving the weight of consignments many hundreds of pounds short of the true figure. On their arrival here assistant weighers who could be trusted would weigh the consignments to agree with the invoice figures.

There was no danger whatever in the scheme, young Musica said Hyland told him. All the importers were doing this, Musica said he was told. Hyland then agreed to introduce him to Vall, whom Hyland described as one of his bosses.

Vall was a deputy surveyor of the port at the time. Musica said he was introduced to Vall, who told him "We can take care of you, I guess."

Counsel for Musica followed this up by putting in evidence and reading to the jury a letter, which the witness swore was sent to him by Hyland.

Vall appeared in court and vigorously denied that he had anything to do with the scheme. When shown the letter which was read in court, he declared he was not the "Jim" to which it referred.

"Why," he said, "I never saw Phillip Musica until this trial began, and then only in court here. I have been in the customs service for twenty years, and have spent all that time in prosecuting just such cases as this."

TAFT MERCIFUL TO CONVICT

Reduces Seven Year Sentence of Enterprise Bank Clerk to Three.

Washington, Oct. 26.—President Taft commuted to three years the seven-year sentence imposed upon Thomas W. Harvey, a subordinate connected with the wrecked Enterprise National bank, of Allegheny, Pa.

The cashier of this bank killed himself, and some of the chief conspirators escaped punishment on technicalities. The commutation of Harvey's sentence, which he began to serve about a year ago in the western penitentiary of Pennsylvania, was made on the ground that he was largely a tool of others. The Enterprise was a "political" bank.

False Registration Pair Get Five Years

Sir Thomas is as enthusiastic about another race as he ever was and declares that all he wants is a fair match; he wants no favors, but simply conditions that will make him feel that he has a chance of success. He will, if the club will agree, race with a boat of 88 rating or any size, but to be measured according to the rules of the New York Yacht club.

SHOOTS 13-YEAR-OLD WIFE

Man Fatally Injures Woman and Then Kills Himself.

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 26.—Following a domestic quarrel in their home near the Norton Coal company's mines, in Wise county, Charles Rinehart fatally shot his thirteen-year-old wife and then killed himself.

When the girl-wife started to bring a bucket of water from a well she was shot three times by Rinehart, all the bullets taking effect in the back and coming out just below the breast. Collins, who is a prosperous farmer, living near this town, began talking suicide, and to test his family's love for him picked up his shotgun and proceeded to the barn yard.

In a few minutes the report of a gun was heard.

MARSHALL RAPS CHURCHES

Says Woman's Standing Depends on Cut of Gown or Style of Hat.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 26.—At a meeting of the Methodist Ministers' association, Governor Marshall was severely criticised and a resolution was adopted censuring him for the following utterances at a meeting of the Associated Charities at Columbus:

"When the average man joins the church Mrs. Millionaire looks at him with her turned-up nose and says, 'He cannot sit in my pew; he does not belong to my set.' When the average woman joins the church her standing in the church depends on the cut of her gown or the style of her hat. If the church of the living God would get back to where every man and woman were a brother or sister, the churches of this state would soon be filled with communicants."

Picked Up a Gun; Shot Dead.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 26.—George Savidge, on a hunting trip in West Coal township, wounded a bird which flew to a tree. He laid his gun down to capture the bird. The deer followed up its attack with jabs with its antlers. A party of street car men repairing a track nearby ran to the aid of young Leach, while the park keeper drove the animal away with his gun.

OFFERS $75,000 FOR FIGHT

San Francisco Promoter Bids For Jeffries-Johnson Battle.

New York, Oct. 26.—Sid Hester, a San Francisco fight promoter, has made a bid for the proposed Jeffries-Johnson battle that will receive serious consideration. Hester, who runs the Mission Athletic club in that city, telegraphed Jeffries that he would hang up a guaranteed purse of $75,000 or the men could take 70 per cent of the gross receipts, also 50 per cent of the movie picture privilege, for a bout of from twenty to a hundred rounds. Hester also stated that the pugilists could select the date.

JEFFRIES WON'T FIGHT SAYS HIS FATHER

Thinks Johnson Bout Talk is All Bluff.

Washington, Pa., Oct. 26.—Rev. J. H. Jeffries, of Fremont, Fairfield county, Ohio, father of Jim Jeffries, the heavy-weight pugilist, declared here that his son and Jack Johnson will never face each other in the prize ring.

"Jim will never fight Johnson. He will not enter the ring again, and would not fight a negro anyway. This is the only straight news there is concerning Jim, and you can bank on it being gospel truth."

In speaking of the proposed Jeffries-Johnson bout, Rev. Mr. Jeffries made some unusual statements. He says that Jim never had any idea of taking on the big negro; that he was well paid for all the advertisement the pugilistic promoters and others got out of the publicity given a proposed match between the two men, and that Jeffries, even if he did want to fight, would not be able to gain the necessary condition for months to come.

"Fight? Why, Jim is still far from fighting condition," continued the elder Jeffries. "He couldn't get into condition to fight for months. He wrote me that he had not trained a half hour a day while he was away, and anybody that knows him knows that for him to get into condition it will require the hardest kind of training over a long period."

"Months ago I made him promise he would never fight a negro, and you can bet he won't. That was one of the last things he told me when I saw him before he went to Europe. I know he is credited with saying that he will fight just as soon as satisfactory arrangements can be made. You can take it from me, however, that Jim Jeffries will never meet the negro in the ring."

Millville, N. J., Oct. 26.—Mrs. George Thompson suddenly attacked her husband with a carving knife, severely wounding him. He managed to secure the weapon and have the woman arrested. A year ago Mrs. Thompson was sent to an insane asylum, but was discharged, the physicians declaring there was nothing the matter with her. She has been brooding over religion.

ANGORA GOATS.

They Have a Natural Instinct For Eating Brush.

The brush eating instinct of Angora goats is being successfully demonstrated on the Lassen national forest, in California, where they are cutting trails for fire guards through the brushy areas on the slopes of the mountains. The animals, which number 3,000, have been divided into two bands and under the care of the herders are grazed within certain well defined areas, so that their work may be concentrated on the brush within those limits.

The result is that they have practically killed nearly all the brush in the course, either by eating it up entirely or by barking, as in the case of the heavy manzanita bushes. At the beginning of the experiment there was some doubt as to the goats' willingness to eat the manzanita, but it has been found that where there is little else they will just as readily attack it as any other bushes.

The grazing season was so late this year in the Lassen forest that the goats did not begin operations until about the middle of June, but since then they have made rapid progress, and the result promises to be a success from every point of view.

The trails will first be opened and then kept free of sprouts by the goats saving the government considerable labor in cutting them out by hand, as has been done heretofore, while the brushy forage, which otherwise would have been wasted, will support 3,000 goats very comfortably.

The Age of Cattle.

At twelve months an animal should have all its milk (calf) incisors in place.

Fifteen Months.—At this age the central pair of incisors (milk teeth) may be replaced by a pair of permanent incisors (pinchers), these being through the gums, but not in wear.

Eighteen Months.—The middle pair of central incisors at this age should be fully up and in wear, but the next pair (the first intermediary) not yet through the gums.

Twenty-four Months.—The mouth at this age will show two middle (permanent broad) incisors, fully up and in wear.

Thirty months generally show six broad permanent incisors, the middle and first intermediary fully up and in wear; the next pair (second intermediary) well up, but not in use.

Thirty-six months show three pairs of broad teeth, which should be fully up and in wear, and the corner milk teeth may be shedding, with the corner permanent teeth just appearing through the gum.

Thirty-nine Months.—Three pairs of broad teeth will be fully up and in wear. The corner teeth (incisors) through the gum are not in wear.

Heat in Cows.

Difficulty is often experienced in catching certain cows in heat. Some animals do not come in heat regularly and show scarcely any signs when the period is on. A healthy cow should be in heat once in three weeks and during the period is excitable, falls off in milk and shows many other unmistakable symptoms. The only course open where a cow does not show signs is to try her once or twice a week for at least three weeks. If she fails to show during this time, wait a week or two and repeat the program. It often happens that cows will not breed from one cause or another. There is no remedy, so far as we are aware, that will aid materially in bringing on the period. Of course proper feed and care and not allowing breeding animals to lay on too much fat can but assist in the maintenance of all normal body functions.

Sample Helps Frail Women

So many women are dragging out weary lives just because their digestive organs are weak. The result is poor circulation, nervousness and the verge of invalidism. It is often very unnecessary and the woman's own fault.

The first thing to do is to look to the welfare of your bowels. There the trouble usually lies. All physicians know that a large percentage of women are habitually constipated, and from this results indigestion, piles, weakness, etc., that women constantly complain of. But there is no use taking "female remedies" and things of that kind until you have started your bowels to moving. You will find that when the bowels move regularly once or twice a day all your petty ills will disappear. Take a good, mild laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for awhile and you will find yourself rapidly getting better and stronger, your bowels will regulate themselves and work at stated times, and then your headaches and dizziness will disappear. Don't take strong cathartic pills or salts, but just such a mild and pleasant-tasting remedy as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

You can obtain a bottle of your drug-gist for fifty cents or one dollar, and either size may be enough to permanently cure you. Thousands of women keep it regularly in the house and will no longer be without it, as it cures them and can be used with safety by every member of the family, down to the youngest child, but if you have never used it take the advice of Mr. J. B. Cox, 409 Twenty-first street, Moline, Ill., and Mrs. Ellen Dungan, Muncie, Ind., and send to Dr. Caldwell for a free trial bottle, as they did, and learn for yourself what it will do in your own case. That it will cure you, as it did them, there is no doubt.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 521 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

New Sheep Disease.
The first outbreak in the United States of a disease peculiar to sheep, has been found on a farm in central New York state according to Dr. V. A. Moore, director of the State College of Veterinary Medicine.

The disease, he said, is common in Great Britain and Germany, but had never been definitely found in this country.

The malady is a form of stammer and is often fatal, but Dr. Moore says prompt preventive measures will quickly check its spread.

Smallest Cows.
The smallest cows in the world are found in the Samoan islands. The average weight of the males does not exceed 200 pounds. The females average about 100 pounds, are very stocky built and are seldom taller than a Merino sheep. In color these cattle are nearly all alike, a reddish mouse color marked with white. They have very large heads, and their horns are of exceptional length.

A country minister in the course of his dining out on the circuit came to a house where roast chicken was served for dinner. He had previously encountered a series of corn beef dinners, and the chicken looked good.

"Hope it does better there than in lay work," rejoined the host.

The fire within us, which is glowing for all that is human, is ever on the increase, wherefore we look upon all that surrounds us as though it had become more indifferent, more shadowy.—Nietzsche.

Another proof, more evidence,—testimony to swell the long list of local people who endorse the old Quaker Remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convincing endorsement of that remarkable preparation.

Mrs. Frank Tawney, 27 Brockenridge St., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "My son suffered from kidney disease since infancy and probably inherited the trouble. He complained of severe pains in his back and sides, his kidneys were very weak and at times he had but little control over the secretions. Any cold he caught always settled in his kidneys and caused him intense suffering. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at the People's drug store and upon using them my son improved rapidly. When he had finished the contents of one box, he was without a sign of kidney complaint. I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other persons suffering from the same affliction."

WIFE SLAYER CONFESSES CRIME

Gitto Mueller Tells How He Killed Woman.

HE WAS A BIGAMIST

Declares When He Told Her He Was Married She "Screamed and Kissed Me and Wanted Me Back, and I Shot Her."

New York, Oct. 26.—Otto Mueller, who, under the name of Fred Gebhardt, was arrested at Astoria, L. I., for the murder of Anna Luther, whose skeleton was found in the woods near Islip, L. I., was brought over to the Manhattan police headquarters from Brooklyn, and had a long talk with Inspector McCafferty. Mueller, white and trembling, told little to the policemen on this side of the river, but later, after he had been brought back to Brooklyn again, he confessed that he shot Anna Luther in the woods near Bayshore on April 9, 1908.

Mueller's Confession.

Mueller's signed confession follows: "About December, 1907, I first met Anna Luther. We were married in February, 1908, and went to Europe to live. We returned April 6, 1908. She went to Henry Wertupps in Newark, N. J., to spend a day or two. On the pretense that I was going to rent an apartment for us to live in, I returned to my home and wife in Astoria. "I met Anna again on April 8 in Newark, and we went to an address in Thirty-fourth street, New York, and then to Jamaica.

"April 9 we went to Bayshore and we walked about, and I showed her some property. I got into an argument with her about some money matters and I turned away and wanted to go back. She followed me up, screaming, and I shot her in the head. I didn't look at her, and don't remember whether I shot her more than once.

"Immediately after I went to the Islip depot and took a train for home. It was nearly dark. On the way home on the train I threw the revolver out of the car window.

"I want to state that I didn't kill Anna Luther for her money, as the newspapers have stated. My original reason for marrying Anna was that I didn't care to live with my first wife any longer, but as she—my first wife—had given me a child, my desire to see again my child caused me to want to get rid of Anna Luther and return to my first wife's child.

"This is the reason why I shot Anna Luther, and I told her in Bayshore that I was married and had a wife and child and must leave her.

"She screamed and ran after me, and kissed me and wanted me back, and I shot her."

Seemed to Be "Money Mad."

For just a little more than a year and a half from the Sunday that Mueller shot Annie Luther, he and his wife, Annie Merger, and their two children, Annie, three years old, and Fred, who is about a year old, have lived in the story and a half frame house in Astoria. Nothing seemed to bother Mueller—or Gebhardt, as his wife knew him—except that he seemed to be "money mad," and he showed much concern about his two Airdale terriers, which were his undoing, for it was a Jersey express driver's story about the two dogs that led to Mueller's arrest.

All this time Mrs. Mueller—or Gebhardt—was wearing well made clothes with the initials "A. L." embroidered on them, and the same initials were on the bedclothing and table linen. The same "A. L." was engraved upon the watch which lay beside the skeleton down on Long Island all this time. Mueller had got all this stock of wearing apparel and bed linen, he told his wife, at an auction sale of trunks and other baggage in Hamburg. The explanation seemed to satisfy the wife. She asked no more questions. She did admit, however, that she had been afraid of Mueller of late, or since a woman friend from Manhattan came to her recently and told her stories about her husband's former wives. The friend told Mrs. Gebhardt that her husband's real name was Mueller and that he has had seven wives, who are all now dead. The friend added a warning to the effect that present wives of the man might expect sudden death also.

Gets 12 Years For Killing Husband.

York, Pa., Oct. 26.—Judge Bittenger sentenced Mrs. William Tracey to twelve years in the penitentiary, which is the maximum penalty for manslaughter, of which she was found guilty. The verdict of manslaughter came not only as a surprise to the jury, but the public in general, as Mrs. Tracey had confessed to the killing of her husband.

MAN'S SKELETON FOUND

Supposed to Be That of Postmaster Who Disappeared.

Washington, Oct. 26.—A mystery which shrouded the disappearance of Charles A. Fox, Jr., postmaster at Beltsville, Md., a suburb of Washington, has been lifted by the discovery of his bones in a ditch in an unrequented part of the country near Laurel, Md. The identification was made possible by marks on the hatband, by gold cuff buttons and other pieces of wearing apparel found near the body.

The body is supposed to have been at the spot where it was found by a negro since the man's mysterious disappearance on June 10 last. Fox disappeared from his home while in the delirium of a fever. What was surmised at the time of his disappearance appears to be borne out by the ghastly find—that the young man had wandered from his home while mentally unbalanced by the fever and lay down to die.

TOOK DYNAMITE TO SCHOOL

Cartridge Exploded, Injuring Boy's Hand and Causing Excitement.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 26.—A slight panic was caused in the Bingham and Orange streets school here by the explosion of a dynamite cartridge.

The cartridge was found by Lester Keeler, nine years old. He took it to school and was whittling it with his pocketknife to fit it on the end of a lead pencil, when it was discharged. The explosion blew off a part of his hand.

CAN'T REMEMBER NAMES OF HIS WIVES

Married So Many Women He Forgets Some of Them.

Yonkers, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Jacob Tremper, the aged bigamist, under arrest here, made a complete confession. After giving the names of five women to whom he had been married since 1900, he made a statement which took the breath from his questioners. "I could keep on telling you of my matrimonial experiences," he said, "but the fact is I have so many more wives besides those I told you about that I can't keep track of them. I have actually forgotten the names of some of them."

Tremper said matrimony was all right if "taken in moderate quantities." He said he thought he was qualified to talk as an expert on the marriage question, having lived with women of all kinds of ages, of all kinds of dispositions and of all kinds of tempers.

"I think I must have been half crazy," he said, "when I married some of them. My advice to others is to go slow."

His first wife was Elizabeth Wilson, whom he married in 1866. She bore him eleven children, four of whom are living.

"I left her," he said, "because she nagged me half to death and wanted me to give her more money than I earned."

His favorite wife, Tremper said, was Mrs. Susie Meyers, whom he married at Westminster, Md. His first wife traced him and had him sent to jail for seven years for bigamy. When he was released he went in for matrimony with all comers. He abandoned most of them after a few weeks. They were all well to do, principally widows.

Tremper is being held, pending the arrival of extradition papers from Camden, N. J., where the wife whom he last married lives.

AFTER CANNON'S SCALP

Insurgents Will Try to Oust Speaker at Next Session of Congress.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 26.—Insurgent Republican congressmen, in combination with Democratic members of the house, will attempt to oust Joseph G. Cannon as speaker at the next session. Congressman Charles D. Davis, of the Third Minnesota district, who conferred with other Minnesota members, said the anti-Cannon men will not wait for the Sixty-second congress. He believes they can oust Cannon during his present term, and they are already outlining their plan of action.

President of Looted Bank Arrested.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 26.—C. H. Boles, president of the Bank of Grant County, at Sulphur Springs, Colo., was arrested by order of State Bank Commissioner Pfeiffer, charged with looting the bank of $20,000. Mr. Boles has been in charge of the bank only a month. A thorough examination of the books of the bank is being made.

Wild Bear Walks Through Town.

Warren, Pa., Oct. 26.—Clarendon, a small borough six miles from Warren was thrown into consternation when a big black bear paraded through the town. The animal was pursued by dogs, but escaped into a marsh. It is thought that he was attracted to the town by the squealing of a litter of young pigs.

TAFT IS AGAINST THE PORK BARREL

Says Old Method of Improving Waterways Must Cease.

SLAP AT CONGRESSMEN

The President Declares in the Future Measures That Are Useful to the Country Will Be Adopted and Not Those Intended to Re-Elect Certain Congressmen—Starts Down the Mississippi River.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 26.—President Taft started his 1200-mile trip down the Mississippi river to the tooting of whistles and the cheers of thousands.

Fifteen big Mississippi river steamboats, bearing a notable escort, swung out behind the little United States lighthouse tender Oleander, on which the president is quartered. Included in the escort are the vice president of the United States, two cabinet members, twenty United States senators, four representatives of foreign nations, the speaker of the house of representatives with 176 of his fellow congressmen, and hundreds of prominent business men of the middle west.

It is the greatest show that was ever pulled off in an effort to push legislation through congress. The excursion is running under the auspices of the Lakes to the Gulf Deep Waterways association, and is to end at the annual convention of the association in New Orleans.

The president is accompanied on the Oleander only by his secretaries and the secret service guard. He is scheduled to make eight speeches on the trip down the river, but he will have to spare his voice if he expects to speak above a whisper on the last lap of his trip.

Cannon Quotes From Bible.

Somebody wanted to know of Uncle Joe before he sailed what he thought of the fight the insurgents were making against him.

"Get out your pencil and write this down," said he, which was done as follows: "Old Paul, you will recollect, if you refer to his journey, finally struck an attitude and said, 'I have been imprisoned, punished with stripes, met the robbers on land and have been shipwrecked and have met the best of Ephesus, but none of all these could discourage me.' That is all."

At the mass meeting in the Coliseum President Taft served notice on Speaker Cannon that the old "pork barrel" method of apportioning the harbor and river improvements to the congressmen with the pull will have to cease. The speech caused a sensation among the 177 congressmen at the St. Louis meeting, who regarded it as a direct slap at the speaker.

Against "Pork Barrel."

"And right here," said the president, "I want to clear away a supposition which I am afraid has lodged in a good many minds. The projects for irrigation and for the improvement of waterways in the future are not to be for the purpose of distributing 'pork' to every part of the country. Every measure is to be adopted on the ground that it will be useful to the whole country. They are not to be adopted for sending certain congressmen back to Washington or for making certain parts of the country profitable during the expenditure of the money."

"We should take up every comprehensive project on its merits and determine whether the country where the project is to be carried out has so far developed as to justify the enormous expenditure of money and if it will be useful when done. When we decide in favor of a project I believe in issuing bonds to carry it to completion as rapidly as possible."

"It has been proposed that we issue bonds for $500,000,000 or $100,000,000 and cut it up and parcel the money out in this and that section of the country. I am opposed to any such proposition because it not only smells of the 'pork barrel,' but would be a 'pork barrel.'"

Speaker Cannon, of the house of representatives, who some time ago declared that he was opposed to any issue of bonds to improve the waterways, sat just beside the president while he was speaking.

Boy Shoots Chum Dead at Play.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 26.—Playing Indian on the second floor of the home of Dr. Frank R. Smith, at 1302 Washington street, Charles B. Smith, the thirteen-year-old son of Dr. Smith, shot and instantly killed Charles M. Georgia, aged fourteen years, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Georgia. One had a revolver and the other a rifle. They began making a feint of shooting at each other. Georgia snapped his revolver, but it was not loaded. Smith then fired the rifle. He did not know that it was loaded. The bullet entered Georgia's body just below the heart and killed him instantly.

CURES PIMPLES QUICKLY

Simple Remedy That Soon Clears Skin of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past L. M. Buehler has done the biggest business he ever had in any one article in selling Hokers, the skin food that has won so many friends in Gettysburg.

It has been found to be an absolute cure, not only for all minor skin troubles such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There has yet to be found any form of wound or disease affecting the skin or mucus membrane that Hokers does not heal, and its action is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits L. M. Buehler will sell a liberal sized jar for 25c.; larger size 50c. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

There is More Proof

in a single gallon of trial, than in a barrel of arguments—or hot air. One gallon of and one gallon of Pure Linseed Oil, will do more to convince you of Davis' quality, than an entire column in the daily paper. If you want the best result, and are open to conviction—try it.

ABOUT ECZEMA CURE

Read What Your Druggist Says About Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

The People's Drug Store submit the following to the readers of the Gettysburg Times:

For several years we have announced, with our recommendation, that we had found a positive cure for eczema; a simple skin wash, oil of wintergreen compounded with other healing ingredients.

Yet we know there are people right in this town who have eczema, and still have never tried this remedy.

We have, therefore, arranged with the D. D. Laboratories of Chicago for a special offer of a trial bottle at 25 cents instead of the $1.00 bottle as regularly sold.

We offer this trial bottle with our recommendation and assurance that just as soon as the patient washes his itching skin, this mild liquid will take the itch away instantly.

WHEAT WANTED at Gettysburg Flour Mills.

Just why it is so we have never seen explained, but fruit that is grown on sandy land seems to develop a brighter color at maturity. In selecting an orchard site it is therefore well to keep this point in mind.

A British abortion remedy that is said to be very effective consists in giving animals subject to this ailment two drams of pure carbolic acid well diluted in water in soft feed every other night during each alternate fortnight during pregnancy.

Better a little dirt on the kitchen floor and a bright smile for the tired and hungry husband when he comes in from a hard day's work in the field than floors white as scrub brush and elbow grease can make them and a cross and irritable wife with the back ache.

In a good many years' experience in the feeding of sledge there has been virtually no evidence forthcoming that it is in any way injurious as a feed for cattle. More than this, it is relished by the other farm animals, and all seem to thrive when it constitutes a portion of the regular ration.

Before the hot fires of the early winter are started in heater or furnace it is a good idea to inspect the flues and see if the brick and plaster are substantial enough to last until spring without repairing. It is an easy matter to overlook because it is quite out of sight, yet an important one not without standing this fact.

The highest price paid for beehives on the Chicago market this season was $8.30 for a bunch of native steers weighing 1,600 pounds and finished for the market at Bloomington, Ill. This means that a single animal of this weight cashed its owner $137.80. In the words of the hapless little negro in the comic supplement, "This makes a noise like prosperity."

There seems to be a pretty well settled opinion that while seed corn will retain its vitality if buried in an oat bin it will not do so if the ears are hung over the bin above the oats. The reason for this seems to be that in the first place the ear is kept quite dry, its moisture being absorbed by the oats, while in the second instance it gathers enough moisture so that hard freezes kill the germ.

The fellow who puts off the securing of his seed corn until he is afield with a husking wagon the latter part of November or December may be trusting Providence for a good stand of corn next season, but has mighty little ground on which to base any such confidence. In this as in some other familiar experiences the Lord helps those who stir around and do most to help themselves.

SPORTSMEN ARE ACTIVE

Gettysburg Branch 5, of the United Sportsmen of Pennsylvania are taking active steps to improve hunting and fishing conditions in this county.

Among the things proposed is the rebuilding of Bream's Dam. This will be done early next Spring in order to back up the water which it is hoped can be done from the breast of the dam the entire way to Black Hole. The water at the old dam is now very low and has been all Summer, almost nothing remaining of the dam. Four hundred big mouthed bass were planted in this stream last year and fishing which has always been good there is expected to be much improved for next year.

The illegal rabbit hunting which has been carried on here for the past ten days will also be stopped if the local sportsmen are successful in their efforts to get a state game warden here. Many of the cottontails have been shot out of season, local hunters not being willing to wait until the season opens. The State Department has been notified of this and has been asked to send a warden here.

Sunday hunting is also carried on to no small extent in this part of the county and the members of the United Sportsmen are taking vigorous steps to put an end to this practice.

Several other violations of the law have been discovered but in order that the guilty parties may not have warning and be able to evade capture we have been requested not to state what the offenses are.

"OUR NEW MINISTER"

There isn't much to tell about an average country town that Denman Thompson and George W. Ryer haven't told in their Hardscrabble town comedy, "Our New Minister." The authors make the town church the scene of their main action, but the springs of human influence they reveal in their story are equally as pertinent to communities that never had a church. The brimming over with comic phases of incident common to a town, the playwrights managed to steal into the consciousness of the auditor a wish for a broader Christianity than prevails in most small settlements. In the play the old pastor of Hardscrabble, N.H., is of the old blue law disciplinary school. The new minister is less severe, more humane, a man more with an eye to what is tender, even though the help he would extend falls without the pale of what narrow tradition says is a circumscribed circle of the duties of a pastor. "Our New Minister" and all of the Hardscrabble folks, including Joseph Conyers, will be at the Walter Theatre on Thursday, October 28.

The teachers are requested to bring the Century Song Book to the meeting. All in attendance will be served with luncheon at noon by the citizens of Abbottstown.

Sensible Beauty Aids

A Hint upon a Subject Every Woman is Interested in.

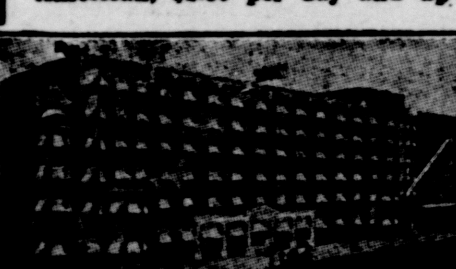

During this period, which is recognized as the most trying time of the year for complexion troubles, the sale of Crown Cream is naturally the heaviest. This preparation, which is literally without a rival today, is not a massage cream alone, but is a true beautifier of the finest type. In fact it is the only face cream which gives some of the best effects of massage, without any manipulation of the skin. Of course these effects can be hastened, and made more lasting, by employing a new massage appliance called the Harlan Beauty Cup, which is made of pure Para rubber, and is so devised that it acts with a vacuum principle. In this way it gently withdraws all impurities from the pores, opens those skin creases we call wrinkles, and by its effect upon the fine blood vessels beneath the surface, builds up the tissue so that the wrinkles no longer exist. In this way, by the use of Crown Cream and the Beauty Cup combined, sallow or pallid skins are cleansed and enriched by the action of the blood upon the tiny veins that have been retarded because of unhealthy conditions both above and below the surface.

It will be seen that these are true beauty aids, based upon common sense ideas, and being on every woman's toilet table. And they cost so little. The Beauty Cup sells for 50c, and this is also the price per jar of Crown Cream. If your own dealer is not supplied, order direct from the Harlan Mfg. Co., Toledo, O., who will send these articles, prepaid, upon receipt of the prices named.

For sale by People's Drug Store.
